INTERNATIONAL STUDIES CERTIFICATES: Undergraduate

The University offers a wide variety of certificate programs, equivalent to minors, which provide our students the opportunity to develop expertise in international subjects. These programs combine offerings from several departments so the subject is examined from a multidisciplinary approach.

While most persons who earn certificates do so in the process of completing their undergraduate degree, a certificate may be completed by non-degree seeking students.

The certificates offered through the Center for International Studies include:

- Africana Studies with 2 options:
African Studies and African Diaspora Studies
- East Asian Studies
- Greek Studies
- International Affairs
- International Business
- Latin American Studies
- Modern European Studies

Interested students should petition for the certificates through the Center for International Studies generally no later than the first semester of their senior year.

Students may be granted permission to substitute coursework taken at other institutions, or for other UM-St. Louis courses not listed.
